VOL. XVIII.] FRIDAY, JANUARY 2, 1818 [No. 5113.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric'l affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 2, 1818.

HYMN OF PRAISE,

BY MRS. BARBAULD.

Praise to GOD, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ:

For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield,
For the vine's exalted juice,
For the gen'rous olive's use.

Flocks that whiten all the plain;
Yellow sheaves of ripen'd grain;
Clouds that drop their fatt'ning dews;
Suns that temp'rate warmth diffuse:

All that spring, with bounteous hand,
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that lib'ral autumn pours
From her rich o'erflowing stores:

These to thee, my God, we owe,
Source from whence all blessings flow;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows, and solemn praise.

Yet, should rising whirlwinds tear
From its stem the rip'ning ear;
Should the fig-tree's blasted shoot
Drop her green, untimely fruit;

Should the vine put forth no more,
Nor the olive yield her store;
Tho' the sick'ning flocks should fall,
And the herds desert the stall;

Should thine alter'd hand restrain
The early and the latter rain;
Blast each op'ning bud of joy,
And the rising year destroy;

Yet to thee my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise;
And, when every blessing's flown,
Love thee—for thyself alone.

From the Balt. Federal Republican.

MR. CURRAN.

The latest intelligence from England gives us to understand that Curran, the celebrated Irish orator, has paid the great debt of nature. The style of this speaker was splendid, gorgeous, magnificent, and encumbered by ornaments. The reader gazes on the page with much the same sensations that he would look upon a display of pyrotechnick art: he expects to behold nothing but an exhibition of fire works, and at every pause between the explosion of the rockets he feels uneasy and impatient. Wherever Curran is not brilliant, we do not feel in our proper element if we are consulting his pages; he has converted us into salamanders, and fire only is our proper element. Such elocution in time destroys itself—the eye aches at the continued spectacle of so much splendor, and turns away to less glaring objects as if to regain its proper tone. It is contrary to nature always to delight in so much radiance. Divine Providence has stationed the most luminous orb in the creation that we inhabit, in a firmament of soothing and tranquilizing blue, by which the eye is invigorated and refreshed when we turn from the gaze of the beams. The eloquence of Mr. Curran no where abounds in those coy, severe, and reluctant graces, that, like the dryads of fabulous antiquity, occasionally steal out from their retreats, exhibiting to the traveller the most fascinating and graceful forms, and, as if terrified, plunging for shelter into their verdant recesses again. If the traveller gazes astonished at so much grace and beauty so suddenly displayed, they are gone as by enchantment, and no search can find them out; but as he proceeds on his journey, they tantalize him, and at the very moment when he despairs of ever beholding them again.—Models of this kind are peculiarly pernicious, and especially to young writers—they follow such examples, and surround commonplace ideas with a redundancy of ornament. We have the sun, and the stars, and the comets, and all the heavenly bodies, wrought up into metaphors, to bespangle conceptions that are not worthy of so much lustre. The famous Suwarrow was once reproached by his sovereign for not attending the royal levee with the various insignia of the orders of Russian nobility, which was very numerous, and all of which he was entitled to wear. The veteran took the hint, and at the next levee day appeared with all his ornaments of nobility; every finger was ornamented with so many rings, that he was deprived of the use of his hands, and he was almost unable to walk, oppressed as he was by the weight of his ornaments.

THE PORTE.

Under this head, the National Register (a very excellent paper, published at the seat of Government) has given an article on the "policy of having a friendly understanding with the Ottoman Empire." The Editor proposes that our government should extend our foreign relations so far as to form with that nation a commercial treaty, and have a Minister resident there. He recommends the subject as worthy of consideration at the present day, "when our commerce is so circumscribed by the pacification of the late belligerents, as to crowd our harbors with vessels for which there is no employment, and to excite the most lively interest for some new path, whereby the active enterprise of mercantile adventurers may meet a recompense." He thinks it "certainly advisable, that we should avail ourselves of all the advantages which the present state of the world would admit, to retain at least a remnant of the great foreign commerce, which marked our progress from the year 1789, until the peace of Ghent." After other introductory remarks, the Editor proceeds as follows:

"There is one view of the subject particularly interesting; which is, that a good understanding with the Porte might prevent many of our collisions with the Barbary powers, and in case of a rupture, might enable us to settle the difference with one half the expense that an armament by sea would cost, and with much less loss of time. Unless, indeed, we enter the list to annihilate those barbarians, we cannot expect to "gather laurels" in a crusade, which always terminates in a treaty pro tem. and which if occasion suits, may be broken before the wax is cold. A minister, therefore, at Constantinople, might be the means of saving instead of creating expense, and he would also have the opportunity of watching other ministers, and particularly those of Great Britain, by whom, perhaps, if we are not in error, the movements of the Barbary powers are more or less swayed."

From the Albany Daily Advertiser.

THE SUBLIME.

In spite of our wonted gravity, we are not unfrequently compelled to smile at the attempts of some of our American writers, at sublimity and metaphor. The following description of the phantom Hypocrisy, is from a late western paper, and about equals the specimen we gave some time since from one of the Connecticut Toleration orators. It certainly possesses the charm of novelty.

"HYPOCRISY! Thou bane of human kind—Thou doubled faced monster—Thou hydra-headed demon—that under the specious guise of friendship, slakest thy envenomed appetite, and feedeth on human credulity. Thou poisonest the fountain head of friendship—Curdlest the milk of unsuspecting honesty, invertest the very tables of nature, destroyest the peaceful retrospect of memory, and blasteth the happiness of millions.—Thou demon accurst of hell, and offspring of black despair! turn thy fell visage to the noon-day sun, and blast thine eye balls. Thou scourge of earth and abhorrence of heaven, the lowest hell's too good for thine abiding place. O that I had ten thousand tongues, as many mouths, an iron voice, and brain of gall, creation's space should be too small to sound my vengeance. I'd denounce you in a voice that should call grum echo from the earth, "and mock the deep toned thunder." But language is too feeble, words are inadequte to describe—Imagination cannot compass them. Foul as ye are, ye tenants of this earthly tabernacle, endeavour to purge yourselves of this abominable vice, or tremble at the upbraiding of conscience, to which and to your God, I consign you."

We think after this truly terrible denunciation, hypocrisy will hardly dare to shew his head. The author, however, has wished himself to be about as great a prodigy as Hypocrisy. A man with ten thousand tongues, as many mouths, an IRON VOICE! and brain of gall," would equal the monster which the wag described as having seen with "six and twenty mouths provided with iron teeth,—and armed with iron claws." The above quotation appears as though the author had thrown a few terrible words into sentences, jumbled them together in a hat, and drawn them out and tacked them together, much in the same manner that the names of the jurors are drawn from the boxes. The words stand staring at each other like entire strangers; as much as to say—"how the devil come we here!"

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

In a communication (in the Northhampton (Mass.) paper, the following fact is related of a boy ten years of age belonging to the Sunday school in that town.

A poor boy, 10 years old, committed to memory 32 chapters, a number of hymns & divine songs, and 12 psalms, including the 119 psalm, consisting of 176 verses. In all, amounting to 1332 verses; all of which he can now rehearse, with perfect accuracy and with great propriety. It has been observed by the teachers in the district day schools, that the children who attend the Sunday school, have by their example introduced a spirit of ambition and industry not before witnessed.

FRENCH PAPERS.

A respected friend, who has often given value and respectability to our columns by his contributions, has favored us with the following translations, which, though they may not be deemed important, will be perused with interest. Extracts follow:—

It appears by an official statement, that from the 1st of January to the 1st of July 1817, there were killed, in the 86 departments of France, 2,416 Wolves, 4 Bears, and 1 Tyger. The Tyger was killed in the Department of Ande, the only one for 25 years past.

The corps of officers of the Marine of France, in full pay, has recently been fixed at the following number: 6 admirals; 12 rear admirals; 60 captains of men of war; 80 captains of frigates: 300 lieutenants of men of war; 400 ensigns of do; 300 midshipmen, (or eleves.)

The present population of St. Petersburg is stated at 270,500 inhabitants including the garrison—The proportion of foreigners is estimated at 1 8th thereof. In point of numbers that capital ranks the fifth city in Europe.

The population of the city of Rome in 1817 has been computed at 151,336 inhabitants—In 1816 it was 128,997.

Count Archamband Joseph de Talleyrand Perigord, (brother of the famous Charles Maurice de Talleyrand Perigord, Prince de Talleyrand) has been created by the king of France, Duke de Talleyrand. The Cardinal de Talleyrand (who is likewise a duke and a peer) is named Alexandre Angelique de Talleyrand Perigord.

A London paper of the 18th October stated that the Royal Vales (paper money) of Spain were at a discount of 74 per cent. notwithstanding the new plan of finance and the frequent deliberations of the councils of ways and means.

ENCOURAGEMENT OF HOME MANUFACTURES.

The following passage, contained, in the articles of association of a Society at Tournay, formed for the encouragement of national industry, pourtrays the patriotic and independent spirit of the inhabitants of the Netherlands:

"A welcome admission of the products of the people that receive ours: but an anathema against the manufactures of those nations who, actuated by a blind and sordid selfishness, would make us tributary to them, and not take any of ours in exchange. An anathema, in retaliation, against the manufactures of those nations, until they return to measures of equity, which are likewise recommended by their personal interest.

"Let us repeat the maxim of our provincial states: "To prohibit against those who do prohibit; but let us only prohibit in order to effectuate the repeal of prohibitions.

"The English prohibit all our products without any concession; she therefore authorizes us to prohibit her's without any concession.

"In the interval, the genius of our manufactures will vie with emulation to furnish the substitutes for foreign products: at the same time will the interests of our manufactories and our consumers be benefited."

Patriotic societies on the same principles are organizing in the various towns of Belgium, at Ghent, Brussels, &c.—They represent to their government the wisdom and the necessity of adopting a tariff similar to those which are in force in England and in France. The members of those numerous societies have resolved to clothe themselves exclusively with the manufactures of their own country.

Norfolk, Dec. 29.

Arrived in Hampton Roads on Friday evening last the United States' frigate Constellation, commodore Shaw, in a passage of 44 days from Gibraltar. The American squadron, consisting of the Washington, 74, commodore Chauncey, frigate United States, captain Crane, sloop of war Peacock, captain Rogers, and brig Spark, captain Nicholson, remained at Gibraltar when the Constellation sailed; the sloop of war Erie, captain Gamble, sailed for Marseilles a few days before.

Captain Creighton, lieutenants Watson and Nicholson, of the navy, and captains Hall and Breckenridge, late of the marine corps, came passengers in the Constellation. The Constellation has also brought home a number of discharged seamen, whose terms of service had expired.

Midshipman Abbott, a very promising and deserving young man, and highly esteemed by all his brother officers, died on board the Constellation at sea, on the 15th instant, of a pulmonary affection.—He was a native of Massachusetts.

The Constellation came up on Saturday morning to her old near anchorage ground, off Town Point. [Herald.

INTERESTING!

By the United States' frigate Constellation a friend at Gibraltar has politely communicated to the editors of the Herald the following interesting extract of a letter, which he received from Cadiz by post on the morning of the 12th November, about an hour before the frigate sailed:

"Cadiz, Nov. 10.

"I give you the following from a source that cannot be doubted: About 5 days since the Russian ambassador to the Spanish court arrived here from Madrid, and his object is to meet his wife, who is expected here in a short time a passenger in one of the Russian fleet, now looked for daily, consisting of six line of battle ships and nine frigates and transports, with 6,000 Russian troops. Such is the fact from authority I cannot doubt, and the French consul says he has reason not to doubt it. John Bull here don't know what to make of it. Negociations have been going forward between the Spanish and Russian courts for some time. Doubtless Spain, for the aid Russia may lend in her colonial struggles, has made over some equivalent in the Americas; but what, is all conjecture. The Spanish authorities are making splendid entertainments for the Russian ambassador: the first is given by the Marine Department of the Isles."

The same letter adds,

"The Spanish government have just imposed a new duty of one dollar per ton on all American vessels that may arrive at any Spanish port. This regulation causes great uneasiness amongst the Spaniards." [ibid.

In the steam boat Virginia, on Saturday last, came passenger, from Annapolis, general Swift, of the corps of engineers, one of the board appointed to examine and report to the executive the defensible points of Hampton Roads and the entrance of the Chesapeake Bay;—colonel M'Rea, majors Kerney and Roberdeau, and lieut. Blaney, who had returned to Washington since their first arrival here, also came passengers in the Virginia, and were landed at Old Point Comfort. We understand that the United States' schooner Nonsuch, lieutenant commandant Claxton, now lying in this harbor, will sail in a few days with the board of officers, to enter on the duties of their appointment. [Beacon, Dec. 29.

New-York, Dec. 28.

The ship India, arrived yesterday, on her outward passage (10th March) touched at the island of Tristan de Cunha, where she found the British flag flying, and a number of troops from the Cape of Good Hope. They were fortifying the place, and had erected a number of brick buildings, from brick of their own manufacture.

The following was handed capt. Tomkin by a British officer, and may be of service to vessels bound to the East Indies, that may have occasion to touch for refreshments:

"Ancherage at Tristan de Cunha, in 16½ fathoms: West point of Falmouth Bay, bearing S 60 W. Waterfall, S. 30, 10 W. East point of the Bay, S. 56, 48 E. black sand and gravel, and good holding ground; latitude of the anchorage, 37, 3, 55 S. longitude 11, 54, 3, W. variation of the compass, 11, 7, 0, W. Falmouth Bay, at the north side of the island, prevailings winds from N. W. to S, W. seldom more to the northward, and when from that quarter, never blows home."

THE OLD COURT OF SPAIN.

Accounts from Rome state, that the old court of Spain is very melancholly.—The king, the queen, and the prince of peace, have each their separate table.—This last has made a purchase of the villa Mattei, formerly occupied by the archdutchess Marianne. The queen of Etruria visits her parents only from etiquette, though she loves them tenderly. But she wishes to avoid Don Manuel Godoy, whom she abhors from the bottom of her heart. The young prince, her son, continues to justify the most sanguine hopes. The king and queen of Spain always defend, against every one, the prince of peace. "No one in Europe," they both say, "knows better than we do his loyal and disinterested intentions. It was not his fault, not only that Spain has not taken her proper station, but also that the blackest of crimes were not avoided during the French revolution. The prince of peace had the idea of proposing to the National Convention the cession of Florida, in order to obtain the removal of Louis XVI." [London paper.

TOWN ORDINANCE.

AN ACT to establish the manner of regulating the town clock and the ringing of the alarm bell.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the common council of the town of Alexandria, that a fit and skilful person shall be annually appointed, or as frequently as the common council shall deem proper, whose duty it shall be to regulate the town clock and keep the same in order.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the clock shall be regulated by mean time, to be ascertained by a correct meridional line, and it shall be the duty of the person so appointed to adjust the clock every Saturday, or oftener, if the difference of time shall exceed five minutes.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall alter or attempt to alter or regulate said clock, other than the person appointed for that purpose, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That the large bell shall be rung only on occasion of the alarm of fire, or on such other occasion as shall be notified and directed by the mayor for the time being, and every person ringing the said bell contrary to this act, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by warrant before the mayor, or other magistrate, to the use of the corporation.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the common council shall annually make such compensation to the keeper of the town clock as may be deemed reasonable.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this act shall commence and be in force from and after the passing thereof.

Passed in council 27th day of December, 1817. HUGH SMITH,
President of the common council.

PORT OF ALEXANDRIA....JANUARY 1.

No arrival from below as yet—the wind continues to the northward & westward. The vessels which sailed yesterday got handsomely through Washington's Reach before sunset.

Schr Philadelphia, Hand, cl. at Philadelphia 30th ult. for this port.

A sailor belonging to the schr Hilan, Hand, from Philadelphia, off Neabsco, arrived in town last night, and confirms the account, previously received, of the situation of that vessel.—stating that the water is even with the hatches—that about one half of her cargo has been landed on the beach in a wet condition—the remaining part is in the vessel. The sailor adds, that every means in the power of Capt Hand, has been adopted to save the property.

Port of Norfolk, Dec. 29.

Arrived, brig Hammer, Pollard, 57 days from Liverpool. Spoke, Oct. 29, off Cape Clear, ship Fulton, Lewis, 27 days from Boston bound to Liverpool.—Dec. 24, off Cape Hatteras, sloop Harriet, from New London bound to Savanna, 4 days out, all well. Came into the capes about the same time with the schr Friendship of Baltimore, 12 days from St. Eustatia bound to N. York, and another schr 9 days from Portland bound to Philadelphia, both of which vessels anchored in Hampton Roads on Saturday afternoon, being forced in by adverse winds and bad weather. The Hammer has been nearly a month on the coast, without an opportunity of making a port; has experienced a continued succession of hurricanes, which have materially injured her sails and rigging, and has been sometimes close in with the coast of Nova Scotia, and sometimes as far south as the West-Indies. Captain P. declares that in the whole course of his business as a mariner, he has never experienced such weather as he has had during this voyage.

December 28.

Ship Hope, Young, from Marseilles, and 63 days from Gibraltar. Left at Gibraltar Oct. 26, brig Peggy and Pamela, Pray, of this port for Charleston, in 12 days. Spoke Dec. 13, in lat. 23, lon. 59, brig Mary, of and from Bermuda bound to Barbados, 9 days out.

Capt. Young, of the ship Hope, arrived here yesterday, reports, that on his way from Marseilles to Gibraltar, on the 6th October, he was brought too by an Algerine sloop of war, who a few hours before had captured a brig in sight of him, but he could not make out her colors.—The Algerine at the same time boarded a galliot under French colors and permitted her to pass. On shewing American colors the Hope was also permitted to pass without being boarded or spoken with.

To the Flour and Rice Millers
OF THE UNITED STATES.

GENTLEMEN,—It appears that many, have refused to pay for license to use my improvements in the art of manufacturing flour, and in lessening the labor in rice mills, waiting the decision of the United States' courts; while many others have paid freely the sums I demanded for my license; there can exist no reason why some should pay and others be exempt. There has already been a sufficient number of decisions establishing the law, that each infringer is liable to pay treble my actual damages, which cannot be rated at less than the value of the use of my property during the infringement. I have expended the greatest part of a long, arduous, and indefatigable life in study and exertions to invent and introduce into useful operation several important and highly useful improvements, from which great benefits are derived to the users, and I could have put in operation many more equally useful, but was prevented by the unjustifiable opposition, wasting the profits of those in operation, which I had intended to apply to put others in operation which I had discovered; but which now lay dormant, to my great mortification and the public injury. I come into the courts claiming remuneration for my time and labor—the great expenses that I have incurred in advertising repeatedly over the United States, and in my agents travelling for many years to make the utility of the improvements known, and to instruct millwrights to make, and millers to use them. The law contemplates that I shall receive ample remuneration, and by it I was encouraged to risk the great expenses. I have repeatedly published that the price of my license for the remainder of the term should be, the full price of the labor and boarding saved by the use of my improvements in one year only, with lawful interest until paid; but to those who infringed my rights, and refused to pay when called on, I would, beginning with the year ending January 22, 1813, count the sum saved in labor and boarding during the last year (equal to the first price) as a new sum becoming due, and running on interest also; and so on, the 23d day of January in each and every year thereafter a new sum saved in labor and boarding becomes due, and runs on interest until license be purchased, demanding the interest only on all these sums, leaving the principal in the hands of the users; which is the least I can receive of them to meet the expenses which they have compelled me to incur. The above are now the only terms on which my agents are instructed to grant licenses, and they are instructed to institute suits against all infringers without giving them another call.

Those who wish to purchase licenses may apply to John Love, esq. Buckland, Prince William county, or to capt. John Moody, Richmond, Va.

OLIVER EVANS.

NOTE.—Persons using Mr. Evans' improvements, or parts of them, unpaid for, will be sued if they do not discharge the claim on application. Mr. William H. Alexander has, under my authority from Mr. Evans, been empowered to receive payments and deliver licenses to use his improvements. Payments, therefore, made to him, John Moody, or myself, will alone be valid, and save the expense of suit and trebie damages to the defendants. JOHN LOVE.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. Noland, living at Aldie, Loudoun county, whose family she was raised in. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. She had on when she went away a dress of coating cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with shirts of a brown snuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier or Loudoun counties; if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her, I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable charges paid in either case, if brought home. Lieut. (with a Song)	Wynne
1st Sailor,	E. Emberton
2d Sailor,	Carr
Fisherman,	Emberton

Alguazils, Dancers, &c.

Donna Anna,	Mrs. Durang
Fisherman's Wife,	Monier
Fisherwoman,	Miss Trajetta
Old Lady,	Mrs. Thomas
Young Lady,	Legg

In the course of the Pantomime Mr. Garner will introduce the celebrated Song of "The Beautiful Maid," and Miss Trajetta an Italian Polonese, entitled "La donna e' come il fiore."

In Act first, A Sea Scene and Storm. The Libertine is shipwrecked and thrown on the beach, at the door of a fisherman's hut. The fishermen's wives seeing him exhausted and lying on the ground, show compassion for his situation, and lead him into the hut—Storm continues.—Scaramouch is seen riding on the back of a Dolphin, by which he arrives safe on land. The Libertine, returning from the hut refreshed, sees his servant Scaramouch, who manifests the most extravagant joy at beholding his master. At the end of the first Act, a Bridal Dance.—The Libertine enters and carries off the bride—Scaramouch, in imitation of his master, runs off with an old lady.

Act second opens with a grand Equestrian Statue, on which is inscribed Guzman. In the course of the second Act, a grand Banquet, at which Don Juan presides. The festivity is interrupted by the appearance of the Ghost of Don Guzman, whose body the Libertine murdered. Much confusion ensues—the ladies of the Banquet fly the room in all directions. The Ghost invites the Libertine to follow, which he obeys. Last Scene represents a Charnel House. The Ghost of Guzman is discovered at a pedestal—Don Juan enters and takes leave of Scaramouch. The Ghost, who had invited the Libertine to sup with him, offers him a human bone—the Libertine, incensed, breaks it; on which he is seized by furies, who drag him to a dreary vault, where he is compelled to descend amidst the bursts of flames.

AFTER WHICH,

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Prince William county, on the night of the 24th inst. a BRIGHT MULATTO GIRL, nearly white, about 15 or 16 years of age. She is of a very low stature, and very fat; her eyes small and of a hazle color; her hair brown and long; her skin, from great attention, would pass for that of a white person, particularly her hands, which she has preserved from roughness with great care. She carried away many valuable articles, besides her own clothing, (which was costly) such as fine linen shifts, marked with her mistress' name, a costly ring of pearl, several pair of new stockings, muslin habits, &c. Among her own wardrobe was a scarlet stuff dress, which she frequently appeared in when she visited in the neighborhood, with a new straw bonnet, dressed with pink satin ribband, and a tortoise shell comb in her hair.

I will give the above reward of $100 for apprehending this girl, and securing her in any gaol so that I get her again.

Public Sale.

ON the 10th January next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public auction, on the premises, a certain tract or parcel of LAND, situate in the county of Loudoun, near the Gum Spring, and at the intersection of the Little River Turnpike and Centreville Road, near the 26 mile stone, containing 752 acres. And, on the 5th January next, at Mr. Kankey's tavern, in the town of Dumfries, a parcel of LAND, situate in the county of Stafford, within 8 miles of Dumfries, near Chappawamsic meeting house, and adjoining the lands of Major Tolson and others, containing about 250 acres.

Those lands are two third parts of the lands formerly belonging to Robt. Lyle, sen. deceased, in those counties, and divided by commissioners appointed under the authority of court.

It is presumed and wished that all who are inclined to become purchasers, will examine the lands; and, therefore, it becomes unnecessary to be more particular. They will be divided into such portions as may be desired; and the terms of payment will be one third part in hand, and the remainder by equal instalments in one and two years, secured by bond, and bearing interest from the day of sale, with approved security.

CHARLES COUNTY COURT, August Term, 1817.

ON application to Charles County Court by petition in writing of James G. Bateman of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said James G. Bateman has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said James G. Bateman is in actual confinement for debt, and the said James G. Bateman having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said James G. Bateman be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the district of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court, at Charlestown in said county, on the said third Monday of March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause why the said James G. Bateman should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 9th day of December, 1817.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward for taking up and delivering to me in Alexandria, or lodging in jail so that I get him again, negro man WILLIAM, who eloped from Washington, D. C. (where he was hired) about 8 weeks ago. William is about 28 or 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, tolerably well made, yellow complexion, large mouth, very white teeth, and to the best of my recollection a scar on his right cheek—he is very fond of drink, and when intoxicated is a great reprobate and excessively noisy. His cloathing is not recollected, but as he received his wages before he started it is probable he has furnished himself with a new suit. BENJ. T. FENDALL.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS.

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits
Loss of appetite	Indigestion
Impurity of b'ood	Melancholy
Hysteric'l affection	Gout in the stomach
Inward weaknesses and debility	Pains in the limbs
	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
